

Bridges in the Sky

Summary of Content

"Bridges in the Sky" is a progressive metal song by Dream Theater, exploring themes of personal transformation and spiritual journey.

Song Overview

"Bridges in the Sky" is the fifth track on Dream Theater's eleventh studio album, A Dramatic Turn of Events (2011), and served as the opening track for most of the album's tour. Originally titled The Shaman's Trance, the song features a complex arrangement with shamanic drumming, throat singing, and choir passages, creating a mystical and immersive soundscape. Guitarist John Petrucci recorded the track using a 7-string guitar in standard tuning (B-E-A-D-G-B-E), emphasizing both melodic and riff-driven elements.

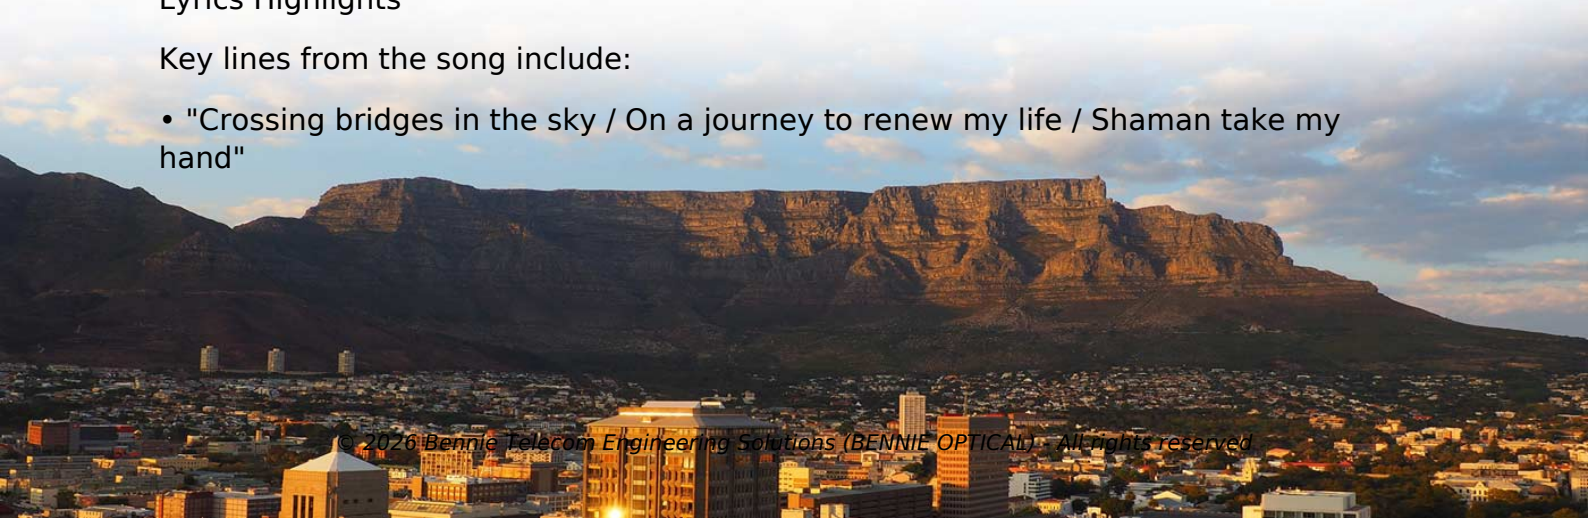

Themes and Meaning

The song is described as a soul-searching journey, reflecting a period of darkness and the process of healing and renewal. Lyrics depict a spiritual quest, with imagery of crossing "bridges in the sky" as a metaphor for transformation and personal growth. The song incorporates Gregorian-style vocals and layered samples to enhance its ethereal and introspective atmosphere.

Lyrics Highlights

Key lines from the song include:

- "Crossing bridges in the sky / On a journey to renew my life / Shaman take my hand"
