

Huijue Waterproof Fiber Optic Connector Price

Summary of Content

Huijue waterproof fiber optic connector prices vary depending on connector type, quantity, and importing country, with flexible B2B pricing available.

Pricing Overview

Huijue waterproof fiber optic connectors, including SC/UPC, SC/APC, and LC variants, are designed for FTTH and outdoor applications with IP-rated waterproof protection. The exact price per unit is not fixed and depends on several factors:

- Connector type: LC, SC, MPO, or specialized ruggedized connectors.
- Quantity ordered: Bulk orders typically receive lower per-unit pricing.
- Importing country: Shipping, taxes, and local regulations can affect the final cost.
- Customization: Some connectors can be customized for specific outdoor or industrial applications, which may influence pricing.

How to Obtain Pricing

- Contact Huijue directly: Shanghai Huijue Network Communication Equipment Co., Ltd. provides flexible pricing for international B2B buyers. You can request a quote through their official catalog or B2B platforms like Made-in-China or Tradewheel.
- Specify requirements: Include connector type, number of cores (2, 4, or multi-core), IP rating (IP67/IP68), and intended application (FTTH, FTTA, industrial).
