

Photovoltaic combiner box connection price

Summary of Content

PV combiner boxes typically range from $50 for small residential units to several hundred dollars for industrial-grade models with multiple input strings and advanced protection features.

Price Range Overview

- Small residential combiner boxes (4-string, 15A-25A fuses, basic surge protection) are available for around $50-$100 on platforms like Home Depot and Amazon .
- Medium-sized boxes (6-10 input strings, higher current ratings, IP65 waterproof, CE certified) generally cost $100-$250 .
- Industrial or commercial-grade combiner boxes (up to 24 strings, 1000-1500V rating, advanced surge protection, certified to meet industry standards) can range from $300 to $600 or more, depending on brand reputation, warranty, and shipping costs .

Factors Affecting Price

- Number of input strings: More strings require larger boxes and more fuses or breakers, increasing cost .
- Current and voltage ratings: Higher amperage or voltage ratings for larger solar arrays increase material and manufacturing costs .
- Certifications and standards: CE, FCC, or UL certifications, as well as IP65/IP67 weatherproof ratings, add to the price due to compliance testing .
