

Reasons for slow fiber optic switch interface speed

Overview

The reasons why this happens are usually as below: the router and the switch or the switch and the Ethernet card in the PC don't communicate well ; there are some special settings in the router ; the switch is not working fine ; nonstandard cables. In order to obtain the SFP standard of the transceiver navigate to the Cisco Optics-to-Device Compatibility Matrix or run the `show idprom interface <interface-id>` command. Transceiver Type: = SFP+ 10GBASE-LR (274) It is important to always ensure the SFP connected at both sides of the link supports. Use the `show interface` command for Cisco IOS to look for `errdisable`, `disable` or `shutdown` status. The `show module` command can indicate `faulty`, which can indicate a hardware problem. See the Common Port and Interface Problems section of this document for more information. Complete troubleshooting guide with practical solutions. Switch 2 is in another room over a 10gig fiber link. Load balancing is set to. With upload and download speeds that often exceed 1,000 Megabits per second (Mbps), fiber optic internet has the capacity to provide a seamless online experience while powering all of your connected devices at once. Utilizing amplifiers, repeaters, and compensators can boost signal strength and counter signal distortions, leading to reduced latency.
