

South Sudan Security Industrial Switch Manufacturer

Summary of Content

Key manufacturers of industrial and security switches in South Sudan include SWITCH Group and DYNAMIC CONSTRUCTIONS (SS) CO LTD.

SWITCH Group

Founded in 1988, SWITCH Group is a well-established company in South Sudan that provides a range of industrial electrical solutions, including electromechanical services, generators, UPS systems, and electric welding and thermal engines. The company operates multiple showrooms, with main locations in Amarat and Port Sudan, and plans to expand further in Wad Madani. SWITCH maintains agency and distribution agreements with international industrial manufacturers, ensuring access to high-quality switchgear and related products. They also offer comprehensive after-sale services and engineering support.

DYNAMIC CONSTRUCTIONS (SS) CO LTD

DYNAMIC CONSTRUCTIONS (SS) CO LTD, based in Juba, Central Equatoria, is a local manufacturer and supplier of electrical switchgears, including low-voltage (LV) switchgear with electrically insulated surfaces. They cater to industrial clients and provide products at competitive prices, making them a key supplier for industrial and security applications in South Sudan.
