

Tanzanian manufacturer of 100G PoE switches

Summary of Content

There are currently no known Tanzanian manufacturers of 100G PoE switches; high-speed PoE switches are available locally through distributors and retailers of international brands.

Local Distributors and Retailers

- Empire Tanzania – Offers a wide range of PoE switches from brands like TP-Link, BDCOM, and Ubiquiti. They provide smart, managed, and unmanaged switches suitable for enterprise networks, with home delivery across Tanzania .
- Network Solutions Tanzania – Supplies PoE devices and solutions compatible with Cisco, Ubiquiti, TP-Link, Netgear, and MikroTik. Their products support multiple PoE standards (IEEE 802.3af/at/bt), Gigabit speeds, VLANs, and managed/unmanaged options .
- Ubiquiti Tanzania – Authorized distributor of Ubiquiti networking products, including PoE switches. They provide regional shipping across East and Central Africa and vendor warranty support .
- Online Marketplaces – Platforms like Jiji.co.tz list various network switches, including PoE models, ranging from small 5-port switches to larger 24-port and higher-speed options. While 100G PoE switches are less common, premium enterprise models may be available through special orders .
