

Venezuelan Low-Voltage Cable Tray Manufacturer

Summary of Content

CableTray-Sistemas Portacables and Tech PI Solutions are leading Venezuelan manufacturers of low-voltage cable trays, offering modern, customizable, and certified solutions.

CableTray-Sistemas Portacables

CableTray-Sistemas Portacables is a prominent Venezuelan manufacturer specializing in modern cable tray systems for low-voltage applications. Their operations include engineering, production, quality control, and sales, ensuring that each product undergoes design, prototyping, testing, and fabrication to meet high technical standards. The company focuses on productivity and cost-efficiency, producing prototypes that can be scaled for mass production. Their systems are widely used in industrial, commercial, and institutional electrical installations, providing organized and safe cable management solutions.

Tech PI Solutions

Tech PI Solutions is another key Venezuelan manufacturer offering tailor-made low-voltage panels and cable trays. They emphasize high-quality, reliable, and CPRI-approved products, with ISO-certified manufacturing processes. The company provides customized solutions for industrial, commercial, and residential projects, including installation support, personnel training, and after-sales service. Their expertise spans complex electrical projects, ensuring compliance with safety standards and delivering cost-effective solutions for power distribution and cable management.
